SEASONAL/LIMITED RELEASES

In addition to our year-round portfolio we have mission-driven beers made to support important causes. Our Landscape Series, released seasonally, benefits nonprofit organizations focused on environmental and agricultural health. Yes Farms, Yes Beer, is a Hazy IPA, 100% Grown and Certified New York Farm Beer. Our small batch, State of the Art Series feature experimental seasonal releases that explore our brewing curiosities.

OUR BREWERY + TAPROOM

Located in Beacon, NY, our modern, high-tech brewery is paired with an equally epic view of the Hudson Highlands. Our equipment is custom-tooled to ensure that our brewing process leads to the ultimate in flavor and consistency. Our tap room provides an indoor/outdoor experience perfect for socializing while sampling our core line-up of beers, seasonal offerings, and non-alcoholic brews. We also host a variety of entertainment as well as a rotation of food trucks and a gallery displaying the work of local fine artists.
